Beyond academia, Dr. Jan has been deeply engaged in strengthening Taiwan-U.S. relations and had served as Governor of the American Chamber of Commerce in Kaohsiung. He has received multiple honors, including recognition from the American Institute in Taiwan, the U.S. Department of Commerce, and U.S. Idaho state government.

Certain Biographical Information of the Chairman of the Board, Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer

Hung-Wen (Howard) Chen

Mr. Chen is the Founder and Chairman of Gemtek Technology Co., Ltd. and the Former Chairman and CEO of Polaris Pharmaceuticals, Inc., and currently serving as an Executive Director of Polaris.

Mr. Chen holds a Bachelor of Physics and a Master of Electronics Engineering from National Tsing Hua University, Taiwan. He began his career at Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing Company (TSMC), where he was engaged in research and development of semiconductor processes and integrated circuits.

He later founded Gemtek Technology, which has since grown into one of the world's leading manufacturers of professional wireless broadband equipment, with a strong presence in international markets. In recognition of his contributions to the technology industry, Mr. Chen received the Outstanding Alumni Award from National Tsing Hua University in 2010 and was honored with the ERSO Award in 2013, one of the most prestigious accolades in Taiwan's technology sector.

In 2019, Polaris Pharmaceuticals faced a severe financial crisis, as many of its clinical trials remained uncertain while costs and expenses exceeded the company's capacity. During this difficult period, Mr. Chen stepped in and took decisive action to stabilize the company. Under his leadership, Polaris underwent a comprehensive strategic reorganization, and with the efforts of his management team, the company achieved a remarkable turnaround, culminating in a successful IPO in Taiwan in June 2022.

Yi-Kuei Chen

Yi-Kuei Chen with backgrounds in biotechnology and venture capital, is a co-founder of Maxpro Ventures. Mr. Chen's professional expertise in asset management has led to his successful execution of more than 60 private equity investment transactions in the USA and the Asia-Pacific region. His past investments include Acepodia, SyneuRx, GenScript, JHL Biotech, Foresee, HEC Pharma, and ACT Genomics Holdings, amongst others.

Prior to co-founding Maxpro Ventures, Mr. Chen was the Senior Director of Integral Group. He was jointly in charge of Integral's Asian transaction process, managed its Shanghai branch, and served as a board member of multiple portfolio companies such as Generon Corporation, FusionVax, Inc., BioLite, Inc., and Flora International Group Co., Ltd.. From 1999 to 2012, Mr. Chen held various senior management positions in the investment division at Central Investment Holdings. During that period, his successful investments included Tanox and Biopure, to name just a few. In 2002, a significant transaction that Mr. Chen had made was the acquisition of SEEDNet by New Century InfoComm Tech. He also served on several corporate boards, such as Concord Fund Company, Singfor Life Insurance Company, and CTCI Corporation.

Mr. Chen received an MBA from Syracuse University and an MS from the University of Minnesota.

Peter Lin

Peter KH Lin, CAIA, MBA, MIS is a seasoned corporate executive and investor with a distinguished career spanning biotechnology, finance, and private equity. He has held key leadership roles as Chief Financial Officer at Tanvex Biopharma, Tanvex CDMO, Tanvex Biopharma USA, and Tanvex Biologic Corporation in Taiwan, where he oversaw financial strategy, capital operations, and corporate governance across global entities. Prior to Tanvex, Peter served as CFO of Theragent, a pioneering CDMO specializing in gene and cell therapy, where he helped shape the financial foundation of a high-growth startup in the advanced therapeutics space.

Peter's career is also deeply rooted in the financial industry. As a principal and investment manager at Solarium Capital, a boutique private equity firm, he led acquisitions and equity investments across diverse sectors including technology, food and beverage, and real estate. Earlier in his career, after earning his MBA, Peter joined WesCorp as an investment research manager, where he directed a credit research team managing a $32 billion fixed-income portfolio—one of the largest structured credit portfolios globally. His team conducted in-depth analysis of U.S. and international structured finance instruments, including MBS, ABS, CDOs, and corporate debt securities.

In addition to his executive roles, Peter serves on the boards of multiple companies spanning biotechnology, medical devices, media, publishing, and real estate private equity ventures. He holds a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from the University of California, Berkeley, a master's degree in Information Systems from Claremont Graduate University, and an MBA from the University of Southern California. He is also a Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst (CAIA) charterholder, underscoring his expertise in alternative investments and global capital markets.
